Red Lodge Pizza Co. was born out of a pizza party in 1996 when Tom, a philosophy major, and Eliza, a PE teacher, decided to turn their passion for making pizza into a business. They perfected the art of hand-tossed pizza, using fresh ingredients and a sauce that quickly became a local favorite.

As the Kuntzs looked for a location to set up shop, they considered various sites, including the old post office, but ultimately chose Natali's Café. Drawing inspiration from postal themes and the classic TV show "Cheers!", they enlisted the help of friends to design a logo and staff the restaurant. With everything in place, they opened Red Lodge Pizza Co. to the public.

In this historic building where you're enjoying your pizza today, we continue to follow the same traditions. Our dough is made from scratch, our pizzas are hand-tossed, and our toppings are always fresh. It's pizza that's worth writing home about.
